EBU

GETTING TO THE EBU

EBU headquarters is located in the heart Geneva's international district, a short distance from the airport.

L'Ancienne-Route 17A
CH-1218 Grand-Saconnex
Switzerland

FROM THE AIRPORT:

Pick up a free public transportation ticket (valid for 80 minutes) from the baggage collection area, just before customs control, at the airport.

Take the N° 5 bus (direction Thônex-Vallard) or the N°. 28 bus (direction Jardin botanique) and get off at Le Pommier.

The bus ride will take around 4 minutes. The EBU is a further 4 minutes walk.

FROM THE CITY CENTER AND TRAIN STATION (GARE CORNAVIN):

The N°. 5 bus (direction Aéroport) or the F bus (direction Ferney-Voltaire) both stop at Le Pommier, from which the EBU is a short walk.

Consult the Geneva Public Transportation Network (TPG) website to determine the fastest route from any location in Geneva. Information about schedules, routes and fares are also available.

Ticket machines are available at most bus stops and on some buses, and the cost is CHF 3.50. To avoid a penalty, buy your ticket before boarding.

If you are staying at a hotel, you may be offered a Geneva Transportation Card, giving you free access to public transport.

BY TAXI:

Taxis can be ordered online, by telephone (+41 (0)22 331 4133) or at one of the many taxi stands around the city and at the airport.

The fare from the airport or the train station to the EBU is roughly CHF 25 depending on traffic flow, time of day and number of passengers.
