

WORKSHOP

Ensuring Satellite remains available for media applications

PROGRAMME

WEDNESDAY 03 JULY 2024

10:00–10:05	Welcome to the Workshop by the Chair of EBU's Strategic Programme on Spectrum	David Hemingway (BBC)
-------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------

BROADCASTERS' USE OF SATELLITE PLATFORMS

Moderated by Susanne Rath (ARD)

10:05–10:20	For distribution: DTH and feeds to terrestrial networks	Robert Webber (BBC)
10:20–10:35	For contribution and newsgathering	Jörg Funk (ARD/SWR)
10:35–10:50	Trends and the future	Piotr Kaszynski (EBU News network)
10:50–11:00	Panel discussion and conclusions
11:00–11:15	– Coffee break –

NEW SATELLITE TECHNOLOGIES

Moderated by Cath Westcott (BBC)

11:15–11:30	The rise of NGSO and opportunities presented	Mike Walsh (Methera)
11:30–11:45	The D2D satellite use case	TBC
11:45–12:00	5G Broadcast in a multilayer, anywhere, resilient and sustainable ecosystem	Antonio Arcidiacono (EBU)
12:00–12:15	5G NTN, what's in it for the satellite industry?	José Luis Alcolea (Hispasat)
12:15–12:30	Panel discussion: The satellite revolution and opportunities for the media industry
12:30–13:30	– Lunch break –

REGULATION OF SATELLITES

Moderated by David Hemingway (BBC)

13:30–14:00	The current regulatory regime: ITU RR and various Appendixes	Anna Marklund (SES)
14:00–14:30	WRC-27: The satellite-heavy WRC	Thomas Welter (ANFR)
14:30–15:00	Agenda items of relevance to EBU Members and possible cooperation with the satellite industry
15:00	– End of workshop –
